

BA in Applied Management (Nonprofit/Human Services) Transcript

The Bachelor of Arts in Applied Management is a three-stage management programme designed specifically for people working in first line management positions in Human Services and Nonprofit organisations.

The programme consists of key subjects that will equip people with the knowledge and skills to manage and lead confidently and effectively in the modern professional person-centred service.

An approved HETAC award is conferred on successful completion of each stage in the programme. A certificate for year one, a higher certificate for year two; and the third and final year is the Bachelor of Arts, which is placed at level 7 on the National Framework of Qualifications.

The Bachelor of Arts in Applied Management provides managers with an opportunity to further enhance the higher management and academic skills of critical analysis, research and effective thinking in order to become influencers of developments and initiators of change leading to improved, quality service provision.
