

OTC Times, 2nd Edition

Hello and a very warm welcome to all. This edition contains some interesting information regarding the new changes taking place at the College to assist job seekers as well as those looking for professional development within the non-profit/human services sector. If possible, we would very much appreciate you forwarding this information to your colleagues. Kind regards,
Conor Murray

New flexible learning initiatives

Successful HETAC Institutional Review

Applied Management degree

LAMH - sign augmentation system

OTC CPD modules

Aine celebrates 30 years.

Successful Institutional

Students at recent skills workshop- BA degree in Social Studies. (Sinead Burke, Keith Walsh, Catherine Dalton & Ricky Davis)

Flexible Learning?

YES!

In quick response to the changing needs of our students, the OTC now offers very flexible options of course delivery to all students in all courses - optional workshops, extensive online resources, virtual workshops. Read more...

Launch of Year 3 of BA in Applied Management

The College will roll out Year 3 of the Applied Management degree course this Autumn. The College is now taking applications for this HETAC accredited course (Level 7, NFQ). Read more...

Successful Institutional

Review

In June 2009, the College successfully completed an Institutional Review (HETAC) achieving a number of important commendations. Read more...

Lamh - sign augmentation system

OTC takes over the management and development of Lamh training.

Developed in 1980s, Lamh training has become very successful and important addition to the sector with over 1780 participants attending throughout Ireland in 2008. Read more...

Aine Melinn celebrates 30 years.

Aine has made her mark on important projects and important roles within St Michaels House and the OTC during the past 30 years culminating in her current position of Assistant College Director. Congratulations Aine!

Upskill Now!

OTC launches new Continuous Professional Development modules. Recession proof your career. Read more...

| OPEN TRAINING COLLEGE NEWSLETTER |

| ADDRESS |

Prospect Hall, Willowfield Park, Goatstown, Dublin 14, Ireland.

| TELEPHONE |

| +353 - 1 - 298 8544 |

| FAX |

| +353 - 1 - 298 7004 |

| MAIL |

| info@opentrainingcollege.com |